

Best selection report 2020

MiFID II regulation offers since 3d of January 2018 more transparency regarding the so called “best selection”. This principle determines that portfolio manager need to apply a selection policy for order executors while taking into account the best possible result for the execution of an order.

Overview below presents you with the five most important intermediaries (order executors or “brokers”) who execute orders for the non-professional and professional clients of Value Square portfolio management- and investment advice- activities.

Value Square applies the same selection policy regarding its professional clients as regarding its non-professional clients. So no difference is made in the overview above. Moreover Value Square has not transmitted any order in relation to securities financing transactions (SFTs).

QUALITY OF EXECUTION

- a) An explanation of the relative importance the firm gave to the execution factors of price, costs, speed, likelihood of execution or any other consideration including qualitative factors when assessing the quality of execution

For the assessment of the quality of execution Value Square assesses the quality of execution of its order executors with whom it has established a partnership agreement. The most important factor for the selection by Value Square for a partnership with a certain order executor is the total cost for the order execution. Once the clients has decided to open a securities account with a certain order executor, all orders for the account of the client are transmitted to the selected order executor.

- b) a description of any close links, conflicts of interests, and common ownerships with respect to any execution venues used to execute orders;

Value Square does not have close links, conflict of interests, or common ownerships with respect to execution venues used to execute orders.

- c) a description of any specific arrangements with any execution venues regarding payments made or received, discounts, rebates or non-monetary benefits received;

Value Square does not have arrangements with execution venues regarding payments, discounts, rebates or non-monetary benefits.

- d) an explanation of the factors that led to a change in the list of execution venues listed in the firm's execution policy, if such a change occurred;

No change occurred in 2020.

- e) an explanation of how order execution differs according to client categorisation, where the firm treats categories of clients differently and where it may affect the order execution arrangements;

Value Square treats different categories of clients equally so there is no different method of order execution.

- f) an explanation of whether other criteria were given precedence over immediate price and cost when executing retail client orders and how these other criteria were instrumental in delivering the best possible result in terms of the total consideration to the client;

When selecting order executors to cooperate with Value Square takes into account above all the total cost for the client.

- g) an explanation of how the investment firm has used any data or tools relating to the quality of execution, including any data published under Delegated Regulation (EU) 2017/575;

Value square assesses the reports of the order executors it cooperates with to follow up on the quality of the execution.

- h) where applicable, an explanation of how the investment firm has used output of a consolidated tape provider established under Article 65 of Directive 2014/65/EU.

Value Square did not use the services of a consolidated tape provider in 2020.
